1 The difference between global management and just management?

The study of management draws on management research and practices, whilst the study of global management focuses on applying these management skills and knowledge to managing in global contexts. The understanding of the complexities inherent in individuals, teams and organisations across nations has become increasingly important in recent years.

2 I'm a fresh graduate, by taking the Master of Global Management what skills can I obtain in being a manager?

3 How can I obtain the required soft skills to deal with people of diverse backgrounds throughout the programme?

The Master of Global Management programme is taught through various teaching methods. You will attend lectures, cases and workshops with renowned professors and guest lecturers, as well as involve yourselves in student engagement.

4 Does the programme focus on soft skills only?

5 Are there any opportunities for us to have more practical industry experiences?

The programme will facilitate, but not provide, internships. There will be ample opportunities to learn about industries and real-world organisations as many instructors use business cases and share their practical experiences and insights.

Marie Dupont

Procurement Coordinator,
Bryan O'Sullivan Studio (Class of 2022)

Despite the fact that I have been studying this field for quite some time, the MGM programme did not fail to expand my understanding and knowledge. It offers a wide variety of modules to choose from, which I thought was impressive as we all have diverse interests, and the programme allows any individual to adapt to their individual needs and interests.

To add to that, I have lived in Hong Kong for over ten years before joining the programme, and despite COVID, my classmates and the International Student Club never failed to help me discover new things, and are always so friendly and welcoming, which is especially important for those who are new to the place. There is so much to see, do and learn, and I know I can count on them to help! Most importantly, I met such a diverse group of people from all over the world, who not only helped me become more open-minded but also introduced me to new and exciting opportunities.

Wenhui Qi

Master of Global Management
(Class of 2025)

While pursuing my Master's degree at HKU, I gained invaluable insights that truly enriched my academic journey and brought me genuine joy along the way. The education at this university extends far beyond traditional classroom learning; I had the privilege of engaging in lively discussions about real-world business cases with classmates from diverse cultural and professional backgrounds. This collaborative environment fostered a rich exchange of ideas, deepening my understanding of different perspectives within the landscape. Many of my peers also shared their fascinating internship experiences, allowing me to learn firsthand about current industry trends and developments.

Additionally, HKU strongly prioritises career preparation, offering extensive guidance designed to help students navigate their professional journeys. The university organised company visits to leading firms across various sectors, providing unique opportunities to engage with industry professionals and learn from their experiences. The dedicated Career Development Team (CDT) greatly supported my transition into professional life by providing personalised career advice tailored to personal aspirations. They helped us formulate clear plans for our futures from the very first month of our programme, ensuring we were well-prepared and focused on our career goals.

As I reflect on my time at HKU, I feel a deep sense of pride in being part of such an esteemed institution. The knowledge, skills, and connections I have gained here will undoubtedly serve as a strong foundation for my future endeavours, making this experience a lasting source of pride.

Senior Consultant, IBM (Class of 2021)

I love the fact that it is such a diverse city, where you can go see the local side in Kowloon, the 'Western' side on HK island, and go to the beach and go hiking in the mountains. It is a very complete city that has a lot to offer and it is relatively easy for internationals to adapt to the culture and the city, as most of the people speak English. Now I'll come to the University, because if there is one University in HK that is globally well-known, it is HKU. It is a school with a very good reputation, and it definitely lives up to it. It is a place where you can find many internationals, where there is a nice campus vibe and where you have very interesting and engaging classes. Professors, unlike in Europe, know you by name and try to have engaging conversations with you in class. This results in you learning even more and faster!

Pui Him Fung

Master of Global Management (Class of 2025)

As a young entrepreneur, enrolling in the Master of Global Management (MGM) programme at HKU Business School was a truly transformative experience. Since founding my first startup in high school, I have always believed that innovation and global vision are key to sustainable growth. The MGM programme connected me with knowledgeable professors and experienced industry leaders who shared invaluable real-life insights, helping me cultivate a global business mindset and deep understanding of how to scale a venture internationally.

Through comprehensive case studies and practical learning, I gained hands-on experience in tackling complex business challenges. The programme seamlessly blends academia with real-world application, making it the perfect complement to my entrepreneurial journey. It has been a cornerstone of my development as a globally minded entrepreneur, equipping me with the tools, confidence, and network necessary to lead and grow in today's dynamic business landscape.
